DAYTON, Ohio, February 22, 1973 --- The Board of Trustees of the University of Dayton at its Thursday, February 22nd meeting passed a resolution tribute to Brother Elmer C. Lackner, S.M., retired Vice President for University Relations, for his long and dedicated service to the University of Dayton. The resolution document was presented to Brother Lackner by Board Chairman, H. Talbott Mead, President of the Mead Investment Company.

The resolution cited Bro. Elmer in part for his demonstrated selfless and capable service, keen judgment, wisdom, foresight, patience, enthusiasm, integrity, and constancy.

It was noted that his work was always characterized by courage in carrying out his convictions, his exceptional concern for human values, the influence he exerted over thousands of young people, and his deep sense of loyalty to these young people and the University.

Brother Lackner served the University continuously since 1941 as professor and administrator. He developed the broad public relations and development area of the University since 1952. He was appointed a Vice President in the mid-1960's. He is now serving in a consultant capacity to the University President and the Chief Executive of University Relations.
